

ADAMS COUNTIAN WAIVES EXAMINATION ON MURDER CHARGE

Davis Waives His Right to Preliminary Hearing on Murder Charge—He Will Not Talk.

West Union, Ohio.—Arraigned before Mayor Itobuck, of West Union, Robert O. Davis, 35, charged with the murder of George Webb, 45, who was shot and killed, near Seaman, Ohio, waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the grand jury. Attorney F. A. Shively is defending Davis, who is now confined in the county jail at West Union on a first degree murder charge.

Davis is a son of James Davis, of the Oak Grove neighborhood, and has a wife and one child. Both Davis and Webb are members of families prominent in this county and the two men are known to many people.

Webb was an active member of several farm organizations, and was generally prominent in the work of his community.

The two families have lived neighbors for some time, and while they have not been openly quarrelling, the two men have not been good friends for a long time, according to Sheriff Pettit.

While he admitted the killing shortly after his arrest, Sheriff Pettit said, Davis is not inclined to talk and will have nothing to say about the affair.

The slaying of Webb has created quite a sensation in the county, and much feeling has been aroused, authorities declare. Because of the prominence of the two parties, the countryside and the entire county has been shocked by the tragic occurrence.

Webb was married to Miss Katie Barnes, daughter of Henry Barnes, of near North Liberty.

John Nace, Who Deserted the United States Army in June Is Arrested by Officer Carpenter.

Officer Carl Carpenter, acting on a tip that John Nace, who has been posted by the United States Army for several months as a deserter, had arrived in Maysville Friday night, went to the home of John Jones in Eastland Saturday morning, found Nace and placed him under arrest.

Nace, who is originally an Ohio man but who lived here for several years, enlisted in the army at Ft. Thomas on January 19th this year. He deserted from Ft. Bliss, Texas, on June 5th.

Nace told Officer Carpenter Saturday morning that he had been in Maysville a couple of times since his desertion but that he had been working on a farm near Portsmouth, Ohio. He came here Friday evening to see relatives.

The deserter was placed in the local jail and will be turned over to the army officials at Ft. Thomas Sunday.

Plans were made for the picture show, "Little Red Riding Hood," to be had November 27, at the Opera House.

It was voted to accept the invitation of the Forest Avenue Association to meet with them on December 8 at 3:30 p. m.

Armistice Day, 1922

ARMISTICE DAY DULY CELEBRATED IN MAYSVILLE

Maysvillians Slog for Moment An Prayer—Others Gather at Wash. Ingleton Theater to Hear Prominent Soldier-Lawyer in Address.

Maysville duly celebrated the anniversary of Armistice Day Saturday. Many of the local residences and business houses displayed the flag in honor of the day.

It was an ideal day, identical in many respects to the original Armistice Day and many recalled the exciting times in the streets of Maysville following the receipt of the information that Germany and the Allies had signed an armistice on the field of battle.

In accordance with Mayor J. H. Samuel's proclamation, many stopped for a moment in silent prayer to thank God for the end of the war and the return of so many of the khaki clad men who had defended democracy against autocracy on the fields of battle.

The chief celebration of the day was held at the Washington Opera House under the auspices of the local Post American Legion. There was a very interesting program. Music was furnished by the Hirschhorn Band and the chief address was delivered by Hon. Thomas Creekmore, prominent Lexington attorney, who saw service during the World War.

"THE STORM."

The Pastime Theater management announces the coming of "The Storm," that great master picture which is to be shown three days next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. This picture is said to be one of the real cinema sensations of the year.

The following is from the New York Globe:

The picture holds your interest, and for many reasons. The action is swift and logical and is further simplified by being centered in three people. There are no leaps and jumps. You are not asked to ride the breakers at Palm Beach one minute and shovel snow from a cabin door in Alaska the next. There is some rather good, honey sort of comedy. Perhaps this should be first. The acting is well earned. House Peters as Burr Winston, and Matt Moore as Dave Stewart are satisfactory in roles that give them little opportunity to be anything more than stock while honors go to Virginia Valli who makes out of Manette a very real sort of person. She is pretty, winsome and genuine and performs apparently without consciousness of the camera.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

A treat is in store for those who attend the First Presbyterian church Sunday, for Miss Mary Wilson will give an account of the State Convention she attended. To hear her report is to get an inspiration from it. All members of the Sunday school and the congregation are expected and the public cordially invited. She will give the report immediately after the lesson period.

WAR'S GREATEST HERO TO BE FREE OF ALL DEBT TODAY

Mortgage on Kentucky Home of Sergeant Woodfill To Be Returned Today In New York—Money Raised by Keith Vandeville Circuit.

Sergeant Samuel Woodfill, designated by General Pershing as the "greatest hero of the World War," will be honored in New York today, when the $3,000 mortgage on his home on the Alexandria pike, near Ft. Thomas, Ky., will be turned on the stage at the B. F. Keith Palace Theater.

Early in the summer Sergeant Woodfill obtained a three-month furlough from the army and got a job as a carpenter on the government dam, near Cincinnati, in order to pay off his indebtedness.

He hammered and sawed as valiantly as he formerly had fought, but, although his wages were comparatively high, they were not high enough to make any impression on the amount he owed.

Edward F. Albee, President of the Keith Theaters Company, heard of his plight and wrote to Ned Hastings, manager of the Keith interests at Cincinnati, asking him to ascertain the money involved in the mortgage.

This was done, and Mr. Albee and other Keith officials held a meeting, at which it was determined to cancel the debt. The money was raised by vaudeville audiences during "Do a Good Deed Week." The mortgage is on his way to New York by a special messenger.

In addition to the mortgage, a paid-up $3,500 life insurance policy will be presented to Sergeant Woodfill, and also $2,500 in cash.

DISTILLERY GUARD BADLY WOUNDED

Wentbebe Whisky Bandits Shot the Watchman After Killing His Dog—Telephone Operators Bound.

Hardstown, Ky., Nov. 10. — Albert Grune, guard, was probably fatally wounded in an unsuccessful attempt today by five or six masked men to rob the H. McKenna distillery at Fairfield, near here.

Grune, shot twice in the left side and once in the arm, was taken to a Louisville hospital.

His dog was with him as he made his rounds of the plant. The bandits appeared and fired on the dog, killing it. Grune used his gun and was shot.

The bandits fled.

James Cornell, Fairfield resident, was the first person to arrive after the shooting and saw the bandits running down a road.

Before going to the distillery the bandits cut all wires leading from the plant. Three of the band climbed to the second story of the telephone exchange in the town, smashed in a window and seized and bound John and Joseph Luckett, brothers and operators. Handcuffs also were used to prevent their giving an alarm to the town.

COAL FLEET PASSES ON ARTIFICIAL RISE.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL TO MAN RUN OVER BY A TRUCK

Mr. A. G. Cline Died at His Home in Casto Street Saturday Morning of Injuries Sustained Friday When Run Over.

Mr. A. G. Cline, well known local plumber, died at his home in Casto street at about 8 o'clock Saturday morning of injuries sustained Friday morning when run over by Wood & Grigsby's automobile in which he was riding and from which he jumped when the machine started to back over a steep embankment between Fifth and Sixth streets.

Mr. Cline, who was employed by the plumbing firm, was riding in the rear of the automobile. As it started over the bank, the driver having lost control, he jumped. He was caught beneath the machine and suffered a broken leg and several ribs besides other injuries of a more or less serious nature. Although his injuries were known to be serious, they were not thought to be fatal.

The deceased is survived by his wife and one son, Mr. Charles Cline, of Portsmouth, Ohio, who was with him when the end came. He was a quiet, honorable gentleman and had a great host of friends.

The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

COMMENT

This has been a delightful fall and the summer was not a rainy one. Wonder what sort of an alibi will be offered to support the high price of Thanksgiving turkeys this year.

The city's dairy ordinance has been in force for several weeks and the great majority of these selling milk in Maysville have complied with its requirements but we learn, on good authority, that there are some yet delivering milk in the city without complying with the provisions of the law. It's somebody's duty to see that this law is enforced and while it's a splendid bill, it will be of no value unless it is enforced as regards every dealer in milk who comes to Maysville.

Two local Parent-Teachers' Associations held interesting meetings Friday afternoon. Both of these organizations are doing splendid work for the schools to which they are attached. Every parent who has a child in the public school should be a member of one of these organizations. If you would attend a meeting once, you would join. Make arrangements to attend the next meeting at your school.

The death of Captain C. M. Plister removes from Maysville about the last of the old-time rivermen. He was a great character who will be always remembered by those who knew him. His work in the open air gave him a strength that held out until the last and although racked with pain, his strong constitution gave him many more days among the living than is given the average man.

One of the most complete Sunday school plants in the South is nearing completion at the Christian church. Equipped with such a plant, the local Sunday school should be one of the greatest in the state. Pastor Mullen, Superintendent Fansler and the entire congregation are justified in their pride.

Evangelistic churches have revival meetings. Why shouldn't the auxiliaries of those churches? The Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. church will have a revival meeting next week and the youngsters have named their revival meeting "Win-My-Chum Week." It's a splendid name for the special effort and if all members will make a special effort to win their chums' interest in the work of the league, great good will be accomplished.

Of course you remember the rejoicing in Maysville on November 11, 1918. That's only four years ago. At that time the best friend our Kibaki et al. defenders had on the field of battle was the American Red Cross. Don't forget that either and when the Red Cross directors ask you to help by joining don't offer an excuse but sign up.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JESUS THE GREAT TEACHER.

Luke 6:1-19

(By C. H. RAYLE.)

In the town of Nazareth. We have seen Jesus in the city, in the wilderness and on the sea shore, in the manger and palace, and we begin Sunday's lesson with Him in the corn field. The disciples were hungry and it was no breach of the Sabbath to thus pluck the corn and eat for such an act could not be called daily labor. Yet according to Jewish tradition this would be considered as work. Now Jesus begins to teach. He ignores their definition and treats it as if it did not exist. He broke away from the tradition and made His appeal to the inner intent and meaning of the Sabbath law. The Sabbath is made for man, thus teaching was the business of our Lord just as fishing was that of Peter, and tax-gathering that of Matthew. It is significant that the other teachers of Christ's day did not challenge His right to take His place among them in their profession, even though His method was traditionally different. The difference between His system of teaching and theirs is seen in their differing upon any one point such as the observance of the Sabbath day.

The Withered Right Hand.—Similarly in the incident of the man with the withered right hand, Jesus gave a fresh and startling teaching concerning the purpose of the Sabbath. The need of rest one day in seven is necessary in order to maintain vitality. To give vigor to a man whose life had been diminished by the withering of his hand was not a violation but a fulfillment of the Sabbath law.

Poor, Hungry, Persecuted, and Despised Called "Blessed."—The sermon on the plain is the same as that recorded by Matthew as the sermon on the mount. Jesus puts forth some thoughts which must have startled some by their unusual import, as for example when he called the poor, the blessed, the persecuted and the despised "blessed"; or when He exhorted His disciples to love their enemies, to do good to them that hated them, to bless them who cursed them, to give freely to lend freely, and to be merciful. The teachings were opposed to theirs.

God So Loved Us.—"Like father, like son," is a pertinent saying, and Jesus reminds these Israelites who are so proud of being children of the true God, that relationship must be proven by resemblance. You love your enemies and do good to them that hate you, etc. Prove your sonship. There is not a corner of the earth so remote that the rays of the sun may not penetrate it; none are so evil but that God still lets His sun shine upon them. What would become of us if God reserved the pure air and water for the just alone?

Not a Dream.—Doubtless the disciples and hearers thought the words a beautiful rhapsody. A remarkable dream is what the world called the Sermon on the Mount for more than eighteen centuries. But Jesus' precepts were soon to be proven by His example. The day was not far distant when some of His hearers should hear Him pray from His Roman executioners, "Father, forgive them; they know not what they do." They may even see Him restore the ear which Peter's sword-thrust had severed from one of the soldiers; and Peter, who is beside Him, eagerly listening to His words, is to experience the tenderness of His forgiveness after the denial.

The Comparison.—The questioning of Jesus was like a great search-light, laying bare every sophistry and revealing the mind and soul. He turns to the anxious throng, many of whom are saying within themselves, "He asks too much. Is it not enough to love one's neighbor?" Slowly the words fall, "If you love them which love you, what reward have you?" Why, even the despised publicans do the same. And if you salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? Thus Jesus makes it plain that He holds His followers to a higher code than that of the world. It is not enough to be as good as someone else, the Christian must be Christ like. Human nature alone cannot love as God thus demands. Only he who has had his sins pardoned and his heart made white and clean is capable of such love as this. This teaching is made vital by the irresistible conviction it aroused that a teacher was not imparting something outside of himself but that it represented His own personality as a whole.

Jesus' Teaching Aim.—An unmistakable trait of Christ's teaching was that He had a definite goal in mind.

COLORED CITIZENS.

The Maysville Sub-District Epworth League and Sunday School Institute convened at M. E. Church, Mayslick, Thursday, November 9th. A beautiful day and the pastors and delegates from the various churches of the sub-district were present. Our District Superintendent of Lexington District, Dr. H. M. Carroll, was with us, and the institute was full of enthusiasm and spiritual interest. These conventions are indeed inspiring and helpful to all co-workers for the advancement of God's kingdom. We realized a religious feast that will ever live in the hearts of all present. The hospitality and hearty welcome accorded us by members and friends of Mayslick church shall never be forgotten. May the blessings of God remain with you.

New York.—Times do change. What would happen to the world's heroes of other days if they should come back and carry on their activities amid the complications of present-day civilization? Anyhow, Roland Boone, a fictional descendant of Daniel Boone, is in the

She was tremendously chagrined to find that they had moved out of the district a few weeks before election, but intent upon holding them to their new faith wherever they might be, she traced them and found them in the Twenty-fifth district, in an old down-over house, with the bathtubs not yet installed. She promptly loaned her converts a bathtub to keep them in line until after November 7.

When we think and talk of the electrical wizards of this country we usually have in mind Edison or Steinmetz and overlook the great inventors that have given so much to make life more bearable and convenient. One of those who have been nursing these many years and who is credited with the invention of the first practical motor, is Dr. Schuyler Skantz Wheeler, who sails this week to represent America at the International Electro-technical Commission meeting in Geneva. Out of all the electrical engineers of this country he was the one

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Maysville Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Maysville citizen who used the medicine and publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Ben P. Fleming, county constable, 223 Limestone street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years when I have needed them. At times my kidneys got out of order and I suffered with a dull constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage. A box or so of Doan's never fails to relieve the trouble in a short time."

The above statement was given November 14, 1916, and on November 22, 1920 Mr. Fleming added: "I am glad to renew the statement I gave for Doan's some years ago as the cure they made for me has been permanent."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Fleming had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs. Buffalo, N. Y.

The dolls are arriving. From all over the world they are coming into the Port of New York for the holiday trade. French dolls, Italians, Chinese and Filipino, Russian by the hundreds, they are making our wholesale districts gay as a Christmas tree, and the best thing about it is that they are meeting with a competition from our own American-made dolls such as they never knew until recent years. The new dolls are different from those we played with when we were children. They have succumbed to the rage for naturalism and look like real children and real ladies—as sophisticated as Viennese actresses, many of them.

CONGRESSMAN BARKLEY IN GOVERNOR'S RACE

Popular Congressman Will Seek the Democratic Nomination for Governor.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 10.—In a statement issued here tonight Alben W. Barkley, Democratic Representative to Congress from the First Kentucky District, declared that he would be a candidate for Governor at the next election, saying that "at the proper time I shall make a formal announcement, no matter how many others run, or where they come from."

"I had not intended to make any statement at present concerning the Governorship, preferring to give to the voters at least a brief rest from politics before being dragged into a state campaign," the statement said. "However, under the conditions which seem to have developed I deem it to be my duty to make this statement."
